

Dolores Reidenbach RN MA

Dolores is the Founder of Jewel David Ministries, Inc. (JDM) of Elizabethtown, an organization launched to serve women and their families through professional counseling services removing financial barriers for those that desire and would benefit from professional counseling. The counseling center continues to grow and be recognized by its clients as making a significant impact in their lives.

Dolores holds an active PA Registered nursing license master's degree in marriage and family counseling from Lancaster Bible College and is currently completing a PhD in Leadership. She has a significant career history in corporate environments and has held several senior leadership positions in the role of vice president for healthcare companies including pharmacy services, capital equipment, healthcare technology and strategic consulting. But her passion is to lead others to lead a faith-filled life everyday pursuing our spiritual purpose as a steward and in service to others.

Dolores and her husband, Randy, and grandson Jay live in Elizabethtown. They have four adult children and five grandchildren.
