

Bio—Doug Lamb

A native of Elizabethtown, Doug Lamb is married to Faith Hess, has two daughters and five grandchildren. He is a successful businessman having owned and operated Doug Lamb Construction, Inc. for the past 35 years. In addition to his entrepreneurial endeavors, Doug is an assistant pastor with Life Gate Church.

Doug actively serves Elizabethtown's Ministerium and United Churches and has helped oversee and participate in providing support and resources to students and families in need to include school books, eye glasses, home repairs and clothing. He was instrumental in establishing the Winter Shelter and is very involved with the Community Cupboard, the local food bank.

Doug serves on the Elizabethtown Area Communities that Care Community Coalition and can often be found counseling or mentoring children through the program. Working with the Literacy Council, school social workers, and Communities that Care he established a GED program at his business to help local residents become more employable. He oversees and often covers many of the costs of the annual Community Block Party downtown.

Doug was the organizer of the WORK CAMP in 2011 and 2015 coordinating several hundred teens from across the country arriving in Elizabethtown for a week over the summer to repair homes needing attention. He co-founded the Partnership for Revival in an effort to foster spiritual and economic renewal in Elizabethtown. Doug meets regularly with the police and is part of the chaplaincy providing spiritual and practical support in difficult situations where ministerial assistance may be needed.

Doug follows his passion for those lost or hurting in Elizabethtown and beyond, always doing all he can to help, whether the need be economic, social or spiritual.
